

Hello, hello...

Well, it's May and I hope that you're all powering through the early morning Super 14 games. This month we have the opportunity of a lifetime for a wholesaler somewhere in the country to experience Bathurst first hand, as well as two outstanding competitions for your customers from both Selleys and 3M. So grab yourself a quick drink and we'll showcase products and competitions for you to peruse...

Ecco is proud to launch 3M's new range of thin wall heatshrink FP221VW

With the same outstanding balance of electrical, physical and chemical properties as the FP301 tubing, the FP221VW is specially engineered for superior flame resistance. Ideal for fire resistant coverings of components and flammable wire assemblies. UL recognised and CSA certified at 600v at 125°C. Shrink ratio 2:1.

Ecco has the full range of 3M heatshrink available in heavy wall, medium wall and thin wall tubing all at competitive prices.
